25X1 9. [] Met with first-term Congressman William Scott (R., Va.). Scott is a serious, no-nonsense type of individual who has worked in the Executive Branch some 26 years. He said he was pleased that we dropped by. (See note for the file.)

25X1 10. [] Met with first-term Congressman Donald E. Lukens (R., Ohio). Lukens wants very much to obtain a seat on House Foreign Affairs Committee but feels that Representative Robert Taft's seniority will beat him out of it. He is extremely friendly towards the Agency and will support us in every way he can. (See note in the file.)

25X1 11. [] Accompanied [] to meetings with George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, and Colonel Glenn Smith, Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, to clarify several items on past alerts, specifically those of 2 May and 30 September 1966. I also left with Mr. Murphy, material prepared by Biographics Register []

25X1 12. [] Mr. Philip Kelleher, staff of House Armed Services Committee, visited the Agency for lunch. []

25X1 13. [] Met with Senator Strom Thurmond, and received from him a letter to the Director [] The Senator apologized that the letter should have been sent out to us during the morning.

25X1 14. [] Mr. Braswell, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, called indicating he would like to have some discussion of our retirement bill and arrangements were made to meet him tomorrow at three o'clock.

25X1 15. [] Pat Meo, in the office of Representative Ogden Reid, called stating that Mr. Reid specifically wished raised the problem of the current statements by the Minister of Interior of Syria on 15 January. The point was that this had been reported to him by an Israeli who appeared to be very disturbed by it. I have asked Mr. Critchfield for assistance on this.

25X1 16. [] Left with Representative Glenard P. Lipscomb a copy of the CIA intelligence report generally known as the Fiat report.
